St. Louis, Mo., March 14. To The Repblic:

WE ARE IN TROUBLE AN APPEAL FOR AID. Yesterday we left an ad at your office for insertion today and to-morrow, calling for a watchman for our plant, stipulating that he was to apply at 10 o'clock a. m. Long before that hour this morning we were besieged and are so still, with eager-eved and jostling applicants to such an extent that the operation of our business is seriously interfered with. We immediately placed the man selected on duty, and his whole time is now devoted to driving away his innumerable disappointed rivals. We fear that we shall be forced to employ an assistant for him unless you leave out the ad to-morrow morning. We need a NIGHT watchman, but are now compelled to use him as a day man.

Kindly help us out, and under no circumstances insert the ad to-morrow. Very truly yours,
